Many Kaiser Permanente facilities offer out-of-hours care for urgent, non-emergency medical needs. Some hospitals and clinics have obstetric/gynecology specialties and pediatric care available as well. It's a good idea to familiarize yourself with urgent care and out-of-hours places near you, so you know where to go when you have an urgent health problem. Out-of-hours care may require an appointment, please call 1-833-KP4CARE to confirm. After business hours is available at: I waited longer to see the doctor than the time it took the doctor to tell me (3-4 minutes) to pick up your prescription after you just looked into my eye. He didn't even check my eye or even try to use the light. I asked him if he was going to look at him and he told me not to be an ophthalmologist. They have a bad service. It was best to interact with the nurse, she was very polite and informative. The nurse at the checkpoint was very rude. Heavy set White lady, she wouldn't even let me talk and route me somewhere else. Great service is my insurance too grateful to everyone in the medical field and all the heroes of this world Pediatric Emergency Care is located on the 3rd floor of the D. Sun hrs building: documents begin to see patients at 9am, but start checking in and taking vital signs at 8:30 a.m. Pediatric staff is highly efficient. Great experience. I had to go to emergency care this morning and I was already having a bad day. I couldn't find any parking lot on every lot. I had to park across campus and street in the parking center and hobble for the emergency care building. I'm disabled and I have to use a walking stick. When I checked in, I am at the same time let the woman know about my parking situation and mobility issue. She offered to call the shuttle office staff to take me back to my car after it was done, even though they don't normally do this for patients. They called me right away and as promised, they took me to my car. I didn't understand your name, but I can't thank you enough for your kindness. He really did my day. If you have an emergency medical condition*, call 911 or go to the nearest hospital. Emergency care is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week at: Emergency services include all of the following regarding an emergency medical condition: A medical screening test that is within the capacity of the emergency department including ancillary services (such as imaging and laboratory services) routinely available to the emergency department to assess the emergency medical condition. Within the capacities of the staff and facilities available in the hospital, the examination and medically necessary treatment to stabilize the patient (once their condition stabilizes, the services they receive are post-stabilization care and not emergency services). * An emergency doctor is a medical condition manifested by acute symptoms of sufficient severity (including severe pain) so that a prudent layman, who has an average knowledge of health and medicine, could reasonably expect that the absence of immediate medical care will result in any of the following: 1) seriously endangering the health of the person (or, with respect to a pregnant woman, the health of the woman or her unborn child); (2) serious deterioration of bodily functions; or (3) severe dysfunction of any organ or part of the body. A mental health condition is an emergency medical condition when it meets the requirements of the preceding paragraph or, for members who are not enrolled in Kaiser Permanente Senior Advantage, when the condition is manifested by acute symptoms of sufficient severity such that any of the following is true: the person is an immediate danger to himself or others, or the person is immediately unable to provide, or use, food, shelter or clothing, due to mental disorder. A need for urgent care is one that requires immediate medical attention, but is not an emergency medical condition. Urgent care may be appropriate for sore throat and upper respiratory symptoms, ear aches, cough, back pain, headaches/migraines, and bladder infections/urinary tract infections. Emergency care is not intended to be a primary care service outside of primary care hours. You don't need an appointment to visit an urgent care center. If you have any questions about the type of care that is appropriate for your symptoms/conditions, call 1-833-KP4CARE (1-833-574-2273). If you are temporarily outside the Kaiser Permanente service area and have a need for urgent care due to an unforeseen illness, injury, or complication of an existing condition (including pregnancy), we cover the services you receive from a non-Plan provider if you reasonably believed that your (or your unborn child's) health would seriously worsen if you delayed treatment until you returned to our service area.
